The Degrees were then conferred by the Provoſt, after which,

8. The Valedictory Oration was ſpoken by Mr. Hollingſhead; and

9. The following Dialogue was ſpoken by three of the Maſters of Arts, viz. Meſſieurs Bankſon, Johnſon and Swift; the two Airs were alſo ſung, with great Propriety, by Mr. Bankſon, accompanied with the Organ, and other inſtrumental Muſic.

The Provoſt then delivered a very intereſting Charge to the Graduates; and the Reverend Mr. WHITEFIELD, who was preſent, concluded the whole, at the Requeſt of the Faculty, with an excellent and catholic Prayer; returning Thanks to Almighty God, for the paſt Succeſs of the Seminary, and offering up the moſt affectionate and fervent Supplications for its future Proſperity.

The whole was conducted with much Regularity and Solemnity; and the different Speakers met with the candid Approbation of a very crouded Audience. Mr. WHITEFIELD, in particular, expreſſed high Pleaſure, in beholding a Houſe which he had laid the Foundation of 30 Years ago, thus continued and improved for the laſting Advancement of Religion and uſeful Knowledge.

Among the different Exerciſes, the following Dialogue, &c. (on Account of the intereſting Nature of its Subject, at this particular Time) gave ſingular Satisfaction.

A DIALOGUE, &c. ſpoken at the COMMENCEMENT, in the COLLEDGE of Philadelphia, June 5, 1770.

AMYNTOR.

NO more in Academic Forms we greet
Your kind indulgent Ear. Prepare we now
The wonted Strain of Joy---But Damon, whence,
That deep-heav'd Sigh; that Brow o'ercaſt with Care?
Why bends your Look in Sorrow to the Ground,
To damp this feſtal Day?

DAMON.

Alas! my Friend;
When DISCORD rears her Banner, and the State
Totters beneath her Sway; when FREEDOM mourns,
And her fair Siſter COMMERCE, by her Side,
Sits bound in Fetters; when untwiſted lies
The Golden Cord of mutual Truſt and Love,
That ſhould unite the * Parent and the Child---
Say, can the ſympathizing Muſe forget
To ſhare her Country's Pangs? Can ſhe delight
In frolic Strain, or deck her Brow with Bays,
When the dark Cypreſs and the baleful Yew
May beſt beſeem her State?

AMYNTOR.

In virtuous Grief,
Even Joy is found, when the ſweet Cheerer HOPE
Refuſes not to pour her wonted Balm
Upon the bleeding Heart. What human Power,
Or human Scheme, however deep-deviſed,
Shall ſtay the mighty Purpoſes of Heaven?
Lo! in the Rolls of PROVIDENCE engrav'd,
I read the great Decree---"The Time ſhall come,
"And now begins to dawn, when rooted-ſtrong
"In ſacred Knowledge and enlightened Zeal,
"Fair FREEDOM ſhall again erect her Head,
"And widely o'er this weſtern World diffuſe
"Her Empire undiſturb'd; while COMMERCE fair,
"And ARTS and SCIENCE, and RELIGION pure,
"Shall prop her Throne"-----And hark! their warbling Voice,
Enraptur'd at the Thought, the Muſes raiſe-----

AIR

FREEDOM, Mankind's ſafeſt Guide!
Here erect thine endleſs Reign;
TRUTH and JUSTICE by thy Side,
Golden COMMERCE in thy Train!

II.

Empires own thy gentle Sway,
They, without thee, drooping, mourn;
Smiling as the orient Day,
Haſte, fair Freedom, thy Return!

DAMON.

Amyntor! thou haſt rous'd my inmoſt Powers!
The whole Analogy of Things confirms
The Strain prophetic. For as yonder Sun
Rejoicing Earth, diurnal, rides along
The pompous from Eaſt to fartheſt Weſt; even ſo
It ſeems decreed that Empire, Freedom, Arts,
And their refulgent Train, ſhould urge their Courſe
Glorious from Eaſt to Weſt, and ere the Day
Of Time ſhall end, in Soul-rejoicing Tour,
Surround the Globe, and every People bleſs.

THYRSIS.

Yes, Damon! and the bright hiſtoric Page
Still more confirms the Thought---With Eaſtern Swains,
Where Innocence and ſimple Nature join'd
To bleſs the rural Cot, when Time was young,
Fair FREEDOM firſt upheld her bloodleſs Reign.
With growing Glory, thence ſhe ſtretch'd her Courſe
Still weſtward o'er † Heſeſtia, Perſia, Greece,
Thence o'er ‡ Heſperian Realms; and as ſhe mov'd
Sublime along, ſhe caſt a glad'ning Ray,
Far to the North, on Scythia's lonely Race,
And vaſt Sarmatia. Then aſcending bold
The Alpine Heights, ſhe bade eternal Snow,
And Mountains bare, delight the Soul even more
Than Arno's teeming Vale forſook by her.
Germania then rejoic'd beneath her Sway,
Reaching, the while, the fartheſt polar Verge
Of wintry Scandinavia's frozen Climes.
Then meditating ſtill a bolder Flight,
O'er fair Britannia's Iſles, and Thule's ſelf.
She urg'd her glorious Courſe; and, ling'ring long
There on Europa's laſt, but nobleſt, Sons
She beam'd her Noon-tide Blaze; and weſtward ſtill
Acroſs the vaſt Atlantic ſhot a Ray,
To gladden Britain's Sons, where'er retir'd
In Regions new. And tho' by Clouds obſcur'd,
Yet ſhall her Beams, with renovated Strength,
Break forth, and pierce thoſe awful Depths of Woods,
"Till all America's untutor'd Sons,"
Of every Language, and of every Hue,
Rous'd and exalted by her genial Warmth,
Enjoy by Turns their Day of ſocial Bliſs.

AMYNTOR.

The Flux of Things---the Riſe and Fall of States---
How ſolemn is the Lecture which they read!
Thro' all the Annals of recorded Time
Each Page declares---"That VICE is SLAVERY's Night,
"And VIRTUE is bright FREEDOM's glorious Day!"

DAMON.

Attend, ye Patriot Throng! ye noble Sons
Of Freedom, who, to ſave your Country's Rights,
With rigid Self-denial, * ſacrifice
Your private Gain---O! be your Worth approv'd!
Attend! be firm! So, in the Roll of Fame,
When Time ſhall ceaſe, and Worlds in Ruins lie,
Sav'd from the Wreck, your Names ſhall ever live!

AIR.

TIME! thy Wheels ſhall ceaſe to move,
Nature in one Ruin end!
But th' Archangel from above,
Shall in heavenly Pomp deſcend,
And from the Wreck, the Roll of Fame
Shall ſnatch, and Save each PATRIOT-name.

NEW-JERSEY.

At a Meeting of the Freeholders, Merchants, and Traders of the County of Eſſex, at Elizabeth-Town, on Tueſday, the Fifth of June, 1770.

WHEREAS the preſent critical State of publick Affairs loudly calls on every Member of the Community, to uſe his utmoſt Influence in order to ſupport the invaluable Liberties, handed down to him by his Anceſtors: The Merchants, Traders and Freeholders, of the County of Eſſex, having ſeriouſly conſidered the diſintereſted Efforts of the Merchants and Traders of the neighbouring Colonies to ſave their ſinking Country, by entering into an Agreement, not to import Goods from Great-Britain, until the Acts of Parliament, paſſed for the expreſs Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in the Colonies, ſhould be totally repealed, which if continued, appears the moſt probable Means of accompliſhing the valuable End ſo nobly deſigned.---And it being repreſented to us, that ſome few Individuals in ſeveral of the neighbouring Colonies, from Motives inconſiſtent with, and injurious to, the Common Cauſe of Liberty, in order to raiſe their own private Fortune, are uſing their Influence to break thro' this laudable and patriotic Agreement; and which if violated or broken thro', would for ever hereafter diſcourage their Friends in Great-Britain and elſewhere, from exerting themſelves in our Behalf, or putting any Confidence in our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances: By which Means we ſhall be always conſidered as a wavering, diſunited People, and fit Subjects for every Impoſition.-----And as by this Important Agreement of the Merchants only, they have themſelves plighted their Faith to the Public, that they would inviolably adhere to the ſame, which has hitherto prevented other Branches of the Community from adopting Meaſures for the like ſalutary Purpoſes.------Therefore as we now think it incumbent on every Individual to exert himſelf in ſupporting the Common Cauſe, have unanimouſly entered into the following Reſolutions;

1ſt, That the ſaid Non-Importation Agreement, appears to be founded on the trueſt Policy, and is a legal and conſtitutional Method of diſcovering our Senſe of the ſeveral Acts of the Britiſh Parliament, paſſed for the expreſs Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in the Colonies as aforeſaid; and that thoſe adhering thereto, are entitled to the Approbation and Thanks of every Freeholder in the Colonies.

2dly, Reſ. That as it appears that the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution in Great-Britain, have prevented the full Effect of the ſaid patriotic Agreement, by induſtriouſly propagating a miſtaken Opinion of a Diſunion in the Colonies, with Reſpect to the ſaid Agreement; and an Incapacity, as well as Want of Firmneſs, in ſupporting ſo Self-denying a Scheme, and having prevailed on the manufacturing Towns to withhold their Intereſt, and ſuſpend their Clamours, aſſuring them, that in caſe thoſe Impoſitions could be continued another Year, that we ſhould be obliged to diſcontinue this neceſſary Meaſure, and thereby be ever afterwards expoſed to their unreaſonable Reſtrictions and Impoſitions: We do therefore unanimouſly agree to make known our Sentiments, that the ſaid Agreement ſhould be firmly adhered to, until the ſaid Acts of Parliament be totally repealed.

3dly, Reſ. That we will do every Thing in our Power to carry into farther Execution ſo generous a Plan.

4th, Reſ. That we will not ourſelves, or by others, receive, purchaſe, ſell, or otherwiſe uſe, any of the Manufactures or Merchandize imported from Great-Britain, contrary to ſaid Agreement; and that we will not trade, or have any commercial Intercourſe with ſuch Perſons, who ſhall import Goods, or cauſe them to be imported, or with any Perſon who ſhall purchaſe Goods or other Merchandize ſo imported,----but that we will uſe every lawful Means in our Power, to hinder the Sale of ſuch Goods, in any Way whatſoever.

5th, Reſ. That we are determined, that we will at all Times, be ready to join in any Meaſures that ſhall be entered into by the Colonies in general, to carry the Deſign of ſaid Agreement into the fulleſt Execution; or if neceſſary, to render the Inconveniencies occaſioned thereby to Individuals, more equal and tolerable.

6th, Reſ. That we do highly approve and applaud the ſpirited Behaviour of our Boſton, New-York and Philadelphia Brethren, in renouncing all Commerce and Intercourſe with the Traders and Inhabitants of Newport in Rhode-Iſland, who have ſo perfidiouſly deſerted them in this glorious Struggle: And we do agree to obſerve the ſame Rules of Conduct, they have ſo properly adopted, with reſpect to the ſaid Traders and Inhabitants of Newport.

7th, Reſ. That we are well convinced that theſe are the general Sentiments of all the Freeholders and Inhabitants of this Province; and we will readily concur with them in any farther Meaſures they may propoſe, for the Support of an Agreement, upon which the Preſervation of the Liberties of America ſo eſſentially depend.

8th, Reſ. And laſtly, that we will at all Times, do every Thing in our Power to preſerve good Order and Decorum in this Province, and to ſtrengthen the Hands of Government, agreeable to our invaluable Conſtitution.

ANNAPOLIS, June 7.

At a Meeting of the Inhabitants of the City of Annapolis, at the Court-Houſe, on the 6th Day of June, 1770;

A Letter from the Committee of Correſpondence in Philadelphia to the Merchants of Annapolis, dated the 29th of May laſt, and received the 5th Inſtant, was read, adviſing, that the Inhabitants of Newport, Rhode-Iſland, had violated the Non-importation Agreement. On which the Queſtion was put, whether this City do concur with the Inhabitants of Philadelphia, in their Reſolutions of having no further commercial Intercourſe with the Colony of Rhode-Iſland, until they return to, and keep their former Non-importation Agreement, ſo long as any of the Revenue-Acts remain unrepealed?

Reſolved in the Affirmative, nemine contradicente.

The Queſtion was put, whether any Perſon or Perſons, who have purchaſed Rum, Melaſſes, &c. from Capt. Whitney, from Rhode-Iſland, knowing at the ſame Time that the Merchants there had violated the Non-importation Agreement, had infringed the Aſſociation entered into the 22d of June laſt?

Reſolved in the Affirmative, nemine contradicente.

LANC. JACQUES, Chairman.

THE Partnerſhip of JOHN INGLIS, and SON, being expired the 31ſt of May, all Perſons indebted to the ſame, by Bond, Bill, or Account, are deſired to pay the ſame; and thoſe who have Demands againſt the ſaid Partnerſhip, are deſired to bring in their Demands, that they may be adjuſted and paid, by JOHN INGLIS.

WHEREAS the Partnerſhip of FRANKLIN and HALL, of this City, Printers, has now been expired above four Years, and though frequent Notice has been given, requeſting thoſe indebted to ſaid Partnerſhip to pay, yet little or no Regard has been had thereto; this therefore is to adverтiſe all ſuch, for the laſt Time, that if they do not diſcharge their reſpective Ballances, in three Months from this Date, they may expect to be ſued, without further Delay, by

ALL Perſons indebted to the Subſcriber for Books, or other Stationary, are requeſted to pay. NAPLES, March 20.

OUR Conjectures of an Eruption of Mount Veſuvius being at hand, have proved true; for on Wedneſday laſt the Mountain burſt within 100 Yards of the Crater, on the Side of Pompeii, from whence iſſued a Lava of about two Miles in Length, and 2700 Paces in Breadth; at the ſame Time the Vollies of Stones, ſome not leſs than a Ton Weight, were thrown out of the Crater to a very conſiderable Height, a Thouſand Feet or more, as we could judge by the Time they took in falling. The Lava has not yet reached the cultivated Parts of the Mountain. This Eruption will probably be moderate, as we had ſo very violent a one two Years ago.

LONDON, April 7.

The E. of C. in a Converſation a few Days ſince, reſpecting the Circumſtance of the Miniſtry turning out Lord C. from the Ch---ſhip, and the Concern expreſſed by ſome of them at the precipitate Step they had taken, took upon him to advance, that if his S------n himſelf deſired it, he would venture to undertake, that his noble Friend would accept of the S--ls again; but that he thought the leaſt the K. could do on ſuch an Occaſion, would be for his M. out of his own ſpontaneous Grace and Munificence, to raiſe Lord C. to the Dignity of an Earl, and to grant him an additional Penſion of 2000l. a Year, durante Vita, to ſupport it.

Laſt Night there was warm debating in the Upper Houſe of a certain Society, on the State of the Nation; Lord Ch-----m was there, and very vehement; Subordination can hardly be ſuſpected among theſe great Perſons, but by whatever Means they have fortified themſelves, the miniſterial Works ſeem to be impregnable.

Yeſterday Morning came on at Kingſton, the famous Cauſe between the Right Hon. George Onſlow, and the Rev. Mr. Horne, for two Letters publiſhed in July laſt. There was ſcarce ever more laughing in a Court of Juſtice on any Occaſion. Mr. Onſlow had retained almoſt all the eminent Lawyers at the Bar, the Attorney, and Solicitor-General, the King's Serjeant and Council, Mr. Dunning, Mr. Wedderburn, &c. &c. &c. They were retained, but never had a Brief; the Intention being only to prevent their pleading for Mr. Horne. At one Conſultation there were above 18 Counſel attended. Six Gentlemen only, Serjeant Leigh, Mr. Cox, Mr. Biſhop, Mr. Shaw, Mr. Ladd, and Mr. Wooderon, pleaded for Mr. Onſlow; Mr. Serjeant Glynn, and Mr. Miſſing, were Counſel for Mr. Horne; and it appearing that the Word Pounds (in the plural Number) was written in the Record, inſtead of the Word Pound (in the ſingular Number) Mr. Onſlow was non-ſuited. The Action was brought againſt Mr. Horne for 10,000l. Damages. It is ſuppoſed the Expence to Mr. Onſlow will amount to at leaſt 1500l.

It is ſaid of Hampden, in the Reign of King Charles, that when the King undertook, in Perſon, to reaſon him out of his Obſtinacy, by comparing the Trifle in Diſpute, which was only 40s. with the Value of his Eſtate, and the mighty Charge of the Suit, that he ſhould reply; "The Difference is not worth a Name. If your Majeſty will call a free Parliament, and they find it neceſſary that your Majeſty ſhould have Half my Eſtate, I ſhould think it my Duty to reſign it without a Murmur. But, though I give up all to public Neceſſity, I will part with nothing to Will and Pleaſure; ſince in ſo doing, I ſhould be a Traitor to the Conſtitution of England."

They write from Minorca, that ſeveral new forts are building there, and the militia of the iſland are ſo well diſpoſed, that it will be no eaſy matter to be ſurprized by any ſudden invaſion of an enemy, a ſubject of late much talked of at Fort St. Philips.

What the E--- of Ch----m ſaid relating to the colonies in an auguſt aſſembly, has been entirely miſrepreſented; his Lordſhip declared, that if the colonies carried matters too far, he would certainly oppoſe them.---The noble Lord has never aſſerted they did carry matters too far.

Private letters from Smyrna mention, that a Ruſſian manifeſto had juſt appeared there, and in moſt of the principal cities of Morea, Levant, and Peloponeſus, promiſing in the name of her Czariſh Majeſty, full liberty of conſcience, and the enjoyment of their antient rights and privileges, to ſuch provinces as intend to throw off the Turkiſh yoke.

April 10. It is confidently aſſerted at the weſt end of the town, that ſome material alterations will ſhortly take place in the government of all our American provinces.

It is thought, in conſequence of a late deciſion reſpecting conteſted elections, that ſome other meaſures will be carried into execution, which will render a diſſ------n of P--------t totally unneceſſary.

Friday afternoon eight noble peers, all in the minority, had a conference with his Majeſty at St. James's.

We hear that on Friday Lord Cambden waited on a great perſonage at twelve o'clock at St. James's, with whom he had an hour's conference, before the levee was open.

By Captain DUCKET, arrived at Boſton from Briſtol, we have what follows, viz.

LONDON, April 14.

MR. Trecothick repreſented to the H. of C. on Monday laſt, that the Exports to America in 1768, had exceeded thoſe in 1769, upwards of 700,000l. He ventured to aſſert, that unleſs the Duties upon Tea were repealed, the Exports of this Year would fall conſiderably ſhort of thoſe of the laſt Year. It likewiſe appeared, that out of 18 Ships lately in the Port of London, and bound to New-York, only 3 ſailed, and that the whole Amount of the three Cargoes did not exceed 10,000l. whereas, if the Differences which unhappily ſubſiſted between the Mother Country and the Colonies, had been amicably ſettled, the Cargoes of thoſe Ships would have amounted to, at leaſt, 300,000l.

The Reports of a Coalition of Parties are now univerſally believed to have their Foundation in Truth.

It is reſolved, it is ſaid, by a great Perſonage, not to take any Notice whatever of the Remonſtrance of a certain City, as it did not come properly authenticated.

April 19. Tueſday Evening, about 6 o' Clock, Mr. Wilkes left the King's Bench Priſon. In order to blind the Populace, who had aſſembled before the Priſon, his Daughter and a Gentleman, went out in a Coach firſt, which drew the Attention of the Populace for ſome Time, on which Mr. Wilkes, with a Friend, ſtept into a Poſt Chaiſe with four Horſes, and though the Poſtilions drove as faſt as they could, they were ſtopped before they had gained the Windmill, where the People, at firſt, inſiſted on taking out the Horſes, in order to draw the Carriage about in Triumph, but he avoided this by Intreaties; and was at laſt permitted to purſue his Journey.

On Tueſday Night the Houſes in the Borough of Southwark, the Town of Newington, and great Part of Lambeth, were illuminated, and the Bells were rung, on Account of Mr. Wilkes's Enlargement.

A certain patriotic Nobleman has all along declared it to be the moſt ill-adviſed Meaſure that could be adopted by the Miniſtry, to pave the Way for introducing the Ruſſians, as a maritime Power, in the Mediterranean Sea.

A Court of Aldermen is to be ſummoned to meet on Tueſday at Guildhall, in order to ſwear in John Wilkes, Eſq; Alderman of Farringdon Ward Without; after which he will be elegantly entertained by the Lord Mayor at the Manſion-Houſe.

This Day the Committee of the Society for the Support of the Bill of Rights ſettled all Mr. Wilkes's Debts.

Mr. Wilkes, we hear, previous to his Enlargement, gave Bond, as Security for good Behaviour for 7 Years, himſelf for 1000l. and two Sureties, viz. Edward Burke, and Matthias Hamberg, in 500l. each, agreeable to the Sentence paſſed upon him.

The Repeal of the remaining Tax complained of by the Americans, will be again taken into Conſideration on the next Meeting of an auguſt Aſſembly; it being partly upon theſe Conditions that the Affair was not more ſtrongly urged at preſent.

At ſeveral Houſes in the Borough laſt Night, blue Candles were burnt, and blue Pipes uſed, in Honour of the Patriot.

The illuminations in the City were very great laſt Night, and the Populace tolerably peaceable.

It is whiſpered, that a freſh Proſecution will be commenced againſt a popular Patriot, in the Month of May, on an old Subject.

St. James's, April 16. The King has been pleaſed to appoint Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, John Roberts, W. Fitzherbert, Robert Spencer (commonly called Lord Robert Spencer) George Greville (commonly called Lord Greville) and Wm. Northey, Eſquires, to be Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations.

Briſtol, April 21. Wedneſday Night, on Account of the Enlargement of Mr. Wilkes, Entertainments were provided in different Parts of this City, and Illuminations appeared, ſome from Inclination, and others for the Preſervation of their Windows.

BOSTON, June 4.

In the lateſt Engliſh Print received by Captain Ducket, among the Deaths of a Number of Perſons is mentioned Dennis De Bert, Eſq; Agent for the Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, and Lower Counties of Delaware, in Pennſylvania; A Gentleman who had always proved himſelf a faithful and ſincere Friend to the Intereſt of America; his Death at this Time muſt therefore be a great Loſs to the Colonies.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in this Town, to his Friend in New-York, in Anſwer to one received by the laſt Poſt from thence.

"Your ſurprize and uneaſineſs that but one ſhip went back with the late imported goods will ſubſide, when I aſſure you that, without favor or affection, all the goods that ſtood fair for exportation, were put on board the Lydia, and did not nearly fill her hold.----You have long e'er this ſeen our votes for re-ſhipping, and may depend upon it we ſhall religiouſly ſupport them. The bold and generous ſpirit of freedom encreaſes every day among us, as was abundantly evident in the Conduct of the people on Friday evening, who departed in a body from a meeting in the Hall, and went to the ſtore, ſuppoſed lodgings, and ſhop of M'Maſters, the noted Importers, and informed them, it was the mind of the inhabitants, that they might clear the town of their perſons and properties by ſix o'clock Monday evening, as they would avoid the conſequences of the public reſentment. Saturday morning, one of them waited on D----r Y----g, who had been prolocutor for the people, and propoſed to do every thing that ſhould be tho't neceſſary to quiet the minds of the Trade, and reinſtate them in the public favor. Mr. Y----g, thinking theſe propoſals more properly determinable by the Body in general Meeting, than elſewhere, waited on ſeveral Members of the ſtanding Committee, and introduced Mr. M'Maſters to them. They denied meddling with it as a Committee; but, as the people ſeemed willing to ſuſpend their reſentment till their propoſals were heard and debated before the Body, one Gentleman told M'Maſters, his advice to them as an individual was, to go home and ſhut up their Store and Shop, and get their propoſals digeſted in writing, ſigned by them all, and come perſonally into the Meeting on Thurſday Afternoon, being the term of adjournment, and take the minds of the Body upon their caſe. P. M'Maſters, the perſon applying, ſaid he would punctually obſerve the advice, and thus it reſts for the preſent; but how ſatisfactory will be the propoſals of the men who, in defiance of the united ſenſe of the whole continent, and that of every friend to the conſtitution, in Great-Britain and Ireland, have obſtinately gone on to complete the deſtruction of a country, which has plentifully ſupplied them with bread, time muſt diſcover. However the reference of the matter to the whole Body will anſwer two good purpoſes, viz. give them an opportunity of a full hearing, and mean while of clearing the town of themſelves and their ſtuff, as fatal to us as ever was that of Achan to the camp of Iſrael."------

Extract of a Letter from a Merchant in Briſtol, to his Friend in this Town, dated April 19.

"You muſt have heard that after every Thing that could be done, the Government have determined that the Duties on Tea ſhall remain this Seſſion.-----Drink none, neither import any, and you will all do right."

The Inhabitants of Taunton, one of the moſt ancient Towns in the late Colony of New-Plymouth, at a very full Meeting, on the 21ſt of May, 1770, taking into Conſideration the alarming Situation the Colonies are reduced to, paſſed the following Votes.

1. VOTED, as the Opinion of this Town, that the Power aſſumed by the Parliament of Great-Britain, of impoſing Taxes on the Colonies without their Conſent, and the poſting and keeping up a Standing Army in this Province, in a Time of profound Peace, without the Conſent of the General Aſſembly, are groſs Violations of the Rights of the Colonies, ſubverſive of the firſt Principles of the Britiſh Conſtitution, and have a direct Tendency to ſubject them to a worſe Tyranny than that which gave Birth to Britiſh America, and loudly call for a moſt ſtrenuous Conſtitutional Oppoſition.

2. VOTED, as the Opinion of this Town, that the Non-Importation Scheme is well calculated to bring about a total Repeal of thoſe Revenue Acts, ſo juſtly oppoſed by the Colonies, and to procure a Redreſs of every Grievance they labour under; and is no Way repugnant to Law.

3. VOTED, That we will not import any Goods or Merchandize from Great-Britain, nor purchaſe of thoſe who do import contrary to the Agreement entered into by the Merchants in Boſton, until a general Importation takes Place; and will look upon all thoſe who counteract that Agreement as inimical to their Country, and the Rights of Mankind; and hold them in the utmoſt Abhorrence.

And whereas ſome Perſons import Goods contrary to Agreement, and vend the ſame throughout this Province by Means of Pedlars;

4. VOTED, That we will not buy of any Pedlar, and will take effectual Care that the Laws reſpecting them be executed.

5. VOTED, That we will upon all Occaſions, and at all Times, exert ourſelves to the utmoſt, for promoting and encouraging our own Manufactures.

6. VOTED, as the Opinion of this Town, that the Uſe of India Teas in North-America, is greatly injurious to Health, has a Tendency to enervate the Body, enfeeble the Mind, and reduce that manly Fortitude ſo characteriſtic of our Fore-fathers, to the feeble languid Effeminacy of the Eaſt; and as a moſt oppreſſive Exaction of our Monies is continued on that Article,

7. VOTED, as the Opinion of this Town, that whoever, under ſuch Circumſtances, perſiſts in buying, ſelling or uſing ſo unneceſſary and injurious an Article, implicitly approves of the above mentioned Exaction, and ought to be eſteemed as an Enemy to his Country.

8. VOTED, That a Committee be choſen to tranſmit the Thanks of this Town to the Merchants of Boſton, who have ſo nobly exerted themſelves in the Cauſe of Liberty, and ſacrificed perſonal Intereſt to the Good of the Whole.-----Said Committee to inſpect the Conduct of Individuals, relative to the foregoing Votes, and report the ſame to the Town. A true Copy,

PROVIDENCE (Rhode-Iſland) June 2.

AT a Town-Meeting, held at Providence on the 31ſt Day of May, eſpecially called, upon hearing that a Majority of a Number of Merchants of this Town had agreed to import all Sorts of Goods from Great-Britain, TEA excepted------

It appearing, that at the late Meeting of a Number of the Merchants of this Town, when the Non-Importation Agreement was vacated by a Majority of thoſe preſent, they were unacquainted with the Sentiments of the neighbouring Colonies reſpecting that Matter, and as it appears the propoſed Alteration of ſaid Agreement, to the Excluſion of TEA only, is not ſatisfactory to the Inhabitants of this Town, or to the neighbouring Colonies, nor will it have the deſired Effect; it is the Opinion of this Meeting, that the Vacation of ſaid Agreement was too precipitate, and ſuch as we apprehend would not have been done by them, had the Matter been poſtponed to this Time.

VOTED, That it is the unanimous Opinion of this Meeting, that no Goods, excepting ſuch as are allowed by ſaid Agreement, ought by any Means to be imported into this Town, until the Duty on TEA be repealed, or the other Governments generally import; and that a Committee be appointed to wait on the three Houſes of Merchants who are for importing, and have ſent for their Goods, and uſe every Argument to induce them to countermand their Orders, and report their Doings at the annual Town-Meeting to be holden on Monday next. And to prevent any diſagreeable Sentiments ariſing in the Minds of our Neighbours againſt the Inhabitants of this Town, on Account of the ſaid late Reſolution, the Proceedings of this Meeting are hereby ordered to be publiſhed in the next Gazette, that the Public may be aſſured we ſhall harmonize in the united Endeavours of this Continent in this and every other Meaſure, ſo ſalutary to their general Welfare.

And whereas there are ſome Perſons in the Towns of Boſton and Newport, who have imported Goods contrary to the general Agreements of the Colonies; it is VOTED and RESOLVED, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall purchaſe, directly or indirectly, any ſuch Goods ſo imported from thence or elſewhere, and bring them into this Town, either for Sale, or their own Uſe, their Names ſhall be publiſhed in the Providence Gazette, that they may thereby incur the juſt Diſpleaſure and Diſcouragement of their injured Neighbours and Country. A true Copy,

Teſt. JAMES ANGELL, Town-Clerk.

NEWPORT (Rhode-Iſland) June 4.

Laſt Week the Merchants and Traders of this Town had two Meetings, at which they concluded to renew their former Agreement of Non-Importation, and appointed a Committee of Inſpection; who waited on all thoſe who had received any Goods contrary to ſaid Agreement, and received all ſuch Goods under their Care, as were then on Hand, which they put into Cheſts, Trunks, &c. and ſecured them properly; which Goods the Committee are determined to viſit at leaſt once every Week, till the Duty on Tea is repealed, and expoſe every Perſon who ſhall be ſo baſe as to offer to open any of the Packages; and to render it impoſſible for the Owners of ſaid Goods to commit any Fraud without being diſcovered, the Committee took an exact Invoice of each Perſon's Goods.

Mr. SOUTHWICK,

I OBSERVED in the Providence Gazette, of the 26th ult. the following extraordinary puffing Paragraph; "The Merchants of Newport have come to a Reſolution to renew their Importations of Britiſh Manufactures, and by the laſt Papers from thence we find freſh Aſſortments of Engliſh and India Goods advertiſed for Sale. Some Perſons from Connecticut came to Town a few Days ſince, with a large Sum of Money, in order to purchaſe Goods; but failing of a Supply here, they proceeded immediately to Newport."

Now, Sir, is it poſſible for any People to talk or write in the above Strain, without bluſhing, unleſs they are void of every Spark of genuine Modeſty, or think all the World Fools except themſelves? For, notwithſtanding the above baſely-deſigned Paragraph, it is aſſerted by many, that the Stores and Shops in Providence have been for ſome Time paſt, and ſtill are, fuller of Goods than thoſe in Newport: Whether the Goods have been landed in Newport and Boſton, and carried to Providence in the Stage Boats and Waggons, the Merchants of Providence can beſt tell. I am very deſirous of being informed who are the moſt guilty, the Freighters of Goods, or Importers, both being Americans? IMPARTIALITY.

NEW-YORK, June 11.

Extract of a Letter from Charles-Town, South-Carolina, dated May 26, 1770.

On Friday Morning laſt, between 7 and 8 o'Clock, was landed from on board the Carolina Packet, Captain White, from London, the Statue of the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham; on which Occaſion a great Number of the principal Inhabitants attended at Colonel Beale's Wharff, ready to draw the Statue by Hand. At Half paſt Eight, the Ropes being properly fixed, and an Enſign diſplayed on the Carriage, the Inhabitants preſent, to the Number of ſome Hundreds (at the Beat of Drum) began to draw the Statue from the Wharff, along the Bay up Broad-ſtreet, to the Watch-Houſe Yard, where it will remain till the Pedeſtal is erected for it to ſtand upon, which we hear will be completed by the King's Birth Day. The Inhabitants on this Occaſion fully ſhewed the Reſpect they bore to the Man who makes his Country's Glory his chiefeſt Happineſs.

On the Back of a Boſton News-Paper, dated the 4th Inſtant, is the following Paragraph, viz. "An Account of the Maſſacre being received in London, is juſt arrived here in 35 Days, Via Newfoundland."

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.

At a Meeting of the American Philoſophical Society, held at Philadelphia June 1, for promoting Uſeful Knowledge, Doctor SMITH communicated a Letter from WILLIAM ATTLEE, Eſq; containing an Account of the Quantity of HOME-SPUN, manufactured among the Inhabitants of the Borough of Lancaſter, from May 1, 1769, to May 1, 1770, together with a particular Liſt of the Number of Yards manufactured by the different Families; which being read, the Society deſire their Thanks may be returned to Mr. ATTLEE, for the laudable Pains he hath taken, in furniſhing ſo intereſting an Account, and order his Letter to be publiſhed, as a Mark of that Regard which is due from every Friend of the Province, to the Induſtry of the Inhabitants of Lancaſter; hoping their Example may be of public Benefit, and convince every Perſon of the many Reſources which we have in our Power, if we are not wanting to ourſelves. In Juſtice to one Miſtreſs of a Family, it is to be obſerved, that although ſhe has the Care of one of the genteeleſt and beſt accuſtomed Public Houſes in the Province, yet above Six Hundred Yards in the Liſt, are her Property alone.

EXTRACT of a Letter from WILLIAM ATTLEE, Eſq; of the Borough of Lancaſter, to the Reverend Dr. SMITH, Provoſt of the College of Philadelphia, and one of the Secretaries of the AMERICAN PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY, held at Philadelphia, for promoting Uſeful Knowledge.

REVEREND SIR, Lancaſter, May 16, 1770.

I KNOW of no Perſon to whom I can with more Propriety preſent the Peruſal of the encloſed Liſt, than a Member of a Society, who, by their Publications, ſeem deſirous to promote ſuch Manufactures as tend to advance the Intereſt of this young Country, and who muſt therefore rejoice at the Induſtry and Ingenuity of its Inhabitants.

It is an Account of the Linens, Stuffs, &c. which have been manufactured for, and delivered in to, the Inhabitants of the Town of LANCASTER only, ſince the firſt Day of May, 1769. By it you will find, that the Quantity really delivered in ſince that Time, amounts to near Twenty-eight Thouſand Yards, viz.

1058	Yards	of Diaper.
3744	-----	of ſtriped Cotton.
4091	-----	of Flax Linen.
8877	-----	of Hemp Linen.
543	-----	of Woollen and Worſted Cloathing.
1060	-----	of Check Linen.
1394	-----	of Linſey.
288	-----	of Blanketing and Coverlids.
4232	-----	of Tow Linen.
836	-----	of Bedtick.
596	-----	of Fuſtian, Wilton, and ſuch Cloathing.
899	-----	of Sheeting.
121	-----	of Curtains.
27739	Yards.

The Stuff now at the Looms, for the Inhabitants, you will likewiſe obſerve *, amounts to between Six and Seven Thouſand Yards more; and the Yarn (as it is called) of different Kinds, which is now in the Houſes of the Inhabitants, ready to be ſent to the Weavers, is ſufficient (I am certain, from my Obſervation during the Courſe of this Enquiry) for ſeveral Thouſands of Yards more.

* Along with this Letter, Mr. Attlee ſent a Liſt of the Names of each Family in Lancaſter, who had manufactured any Part of the above Quantity, and alſo the Number of Yards of each Kind manufactured by each of them, with the Yarn in the Houſe, and Stuff in the Loom; all digeſted in proper Columns, and with much Care and Accuracy.

The Liſt, I am certain, doth not include all that hath been made for the Inhabitants in the abovementioned Time; as (by the Inſinuations of ſome fooliſh or evil-minded Perſons) it was preſently in uſed into the Minds of the People, that the Deſign of my Enquiry was to have a Tax laid on their Spinning-wheels; which Report induced great Numbers of cautious Perſons to refuſe making me any Return, and even to hide their Wheels, for fear of being taxed for their Induſtry; ſo that great Quantities remain unaccounted for. Indeed, when I compare the Number of Families in my Liſt, with the Number of Houſe-keepers we have, and at the ſame Time conſider, that there are but very few Houſes amongſt us, without one or two Wheels pretty well employed (ſo great is the Spirit for Homeſpun among our good Females at preſent) I think I may ſafely venture to aſſert, that above Thirty Thouſand Yards have actually been delivered in ſince the Firſt of May, 1769; and a great Deal of it, both Linens and Woollens, very neat and pretty.

I am ſorry I did not, at firſt ſetting out, take an Account of the Looms employed in the Town. The Thought ſtruck me too late; but, by Enquiry among the Weavers, I find that there are between Thirty and Forty of that Trade in the Town, who have near Fifty Looms conſtantly employed. I alſo neglected at firſt to take the Number of Spinning-wheels in each Family. Thoſe I have entered are about Five Hundred; and make no Doubt but there are above Seven Hundred in Uſe amongſt us.

As many of our good Houſe-wives appear greatly pleaſed at my having made this Enquiry, and ſeem confident that the Year 1770 will produce greater Inſtances of their Induſtry than the laſt Year, provided the Hemp and Flax turn out well; I make no Doubt but ſome Notice of their Induſtry would have a very happy Effect in wiping away the Fears of the Cautious, and in creating and confirming a Spirit of Induſtry and Emulation, even in all.

I muſt requeſt that you will be ſo good as return the Liſt to me, after you have made ſuch Uſe of it as you may think proper. I would have furniſhed a Copy, but am ſo fatigued with my Undertaking, that I am heartily tired of it, and I believe ſhall not again engage in ſuch an Enquiry, without a great Deal of Aſſiſtance. I am frequently called upon by the good Women, to know how much hath been made by Mrs. ſuch a One, and Mrs. ſuch a One, and ſhall have Occaſion for the Liſt, to anſwer thoſe Sort of Queſtions, that the Women may compare Notes with each other.

I fear I have treſpaſſed too much on your Time, and beg your Excuſe, being, Reverend Sir, your very humble Servant,

WILLIAM ATTLEE."

At a General Meeting of the Inhabitants of Baltimore-Town, held at Mr. Little's, on Monday, the 4th of June, 1770, a Letter from the Committee of Correſpondence in Philadelphia, to the Committtee of this Town, dated the 29th of May, adviſing, That the Inhabitants of Newport, in Rhode-Iſland, had violated the Non-importation Agreement, was read; on which the Queſtion was put, Whether the Inhabitants of this Town do concur with the Inhabitants of Philadelphia, in their Reſolutions of having no further commercial Intercourſe with the Colony of Rhode-Iſland, until they return to, and keep their former Non-importation Agreement, and re-ſhip the Goods to Great-Britain, imported contrary to the Tenor thereof, or until the Revenue Act, laying a Duty on Tea, &c. is totally repealed?

Reſolved in the Affirmative, Nemine Contradicente.

Information being given that the Sloop Speedwell, Captain Robert Sterry, and the Sloop Induſtry, Captain James Whitney, were juſt arrived in this Harbour from Rhode-Iſland with Cargoes, the Captains attended this Meeting, and requeſted Liberty to trade, alledging that they arrived in this Province the 31ſt of May, 1770, and made Entries at the Cuſtom-Houſes of Annapolis and Patuxent Diſtrict, and in Support of ſuch Allegations produced their Certificates of Entry, on which the Queſtion was put, Whether they ſhould be permitted, or not?

Reſolved in the Negative.

Captain Sterry and Captain Whitney being called in, to know whether they acquieſced in the Reſolutions above mentioned, declared they did, and promiſed to depart immediately, on which a Copy of the Proceedings was delivered to each, ſigned by the Chairman.

It having been reported that Part of the above Cargoes were diſpoſed of at Annapolis, Mr. Samuel Purviance was called on, to pledge his Word and Honour, that he neither had, or would, purchaſe any Melaſſes from Thomas Williams and Company, the Puchaſers thereof, nor any other Perſon, but ſuch as can make it appear ſuch Melaſſes was not Part of the Cargoes of the preſent Veſſels, which he accordingly did.

Signed, JOHN SMITH, Chairman."

Every Part of the Province ſeems rouſed at the Danger to which their Liberties are expoſed by the Claim of Parliament to tax America, and unanimous to enforce the Non-importation Agreement, which ſeems the only Means of recovering their Rights. Upon the News of the Newport Merchants breaking their Agreement, New-Caſtle, Wilmington, Cheſter, and every Town down the River, took the Alarm, and determined to have no Dealings with them, until they made Atonement for their Defection, and returned to their Duty. Two Veſſels, belonging to Newport, which left this City, having ſtopt at Cheſter, the principal Inhabitants of that ancient Town immediately aſſembled, and gave the Captains to underſtand, that they muſt expect no Trade there; and leſt any Part of the Cargoes might have been landed, they proceeded to ſearch the Stores on Mr. Richardſon's Wharff, and to examine the Veſſels, but found they were thoſe that came to this Town in Ballaſt.

The Ship Sharp, Captain Spier, is arrived here from Glaſgow, but laſt from New-York, and has Goods on board, imported contrary to the Non-importation Agreement, which, we underſtand, will not be received, but immediately returned.

Captain Poulton, from Georgia, on the 5th Inſtant, ſpoke the Sloop Good Intent, Captain Campbell, from New-York for Coracoa, all well.

Captain Stewart, arrived here from the Bay of Honduras, ſailed in Company with Captain Crawford, bound to Dublin, and parted with him about a Fortnight ago, all well.

From Monmouth County, in New-Jerſey, we learn, that a Number of Perſons, who were indicted for being concerned in the Diſturbances at Freehold, in January laſt, were lately tried for the ſame, and acquitted by the Jury.

Arrived at Liſbon. Captains Brown, Wallace, and Barber, from Philadelphia.

To the Printers of the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

GENTLEMEN,

As a few Remarks have lately occurred to me, I thought it not improper, in a modeſt Manner, to commit them to Writing, and requeſt, if you pleaſe, you will give them a Place in your impartial, and well executed Paper. A SPECTATOR.

IN the Pennſylvania Chronicle, No. 177, is the following Paragraph, under the Boſton Head, viz. A Letter from a Merchant in London to one in New-York, ſays, "In ſhort, the whole Cauſe, in my Opinion, of the Act not being repealed, is owing to the Boſtonians, who have ſince Chriſtmas laſt ſhipped from hence not leſs than 150,000l. Sterling in Goods."---If this is a juſt Account of the Matter, I am of Opinion we have had too many Flouriſhes reſpecting Patriotiſm in the public Papers---If it is not a true State of the Caſe, I ſhould be glad to ſee it contradicted in a proper Manner. I am ſorry to obſerve that the Conduct of the Boſton People does not (according to my Apprehenſion) appear to be ſo conſiſtent as could be wiſhed.---For Inſtance, it is acknowledged even by their Committee of Merchants, that, "ſeveral Veſſels had arrived at Boſton this Spring, moſt of which had ſome Dry Goods" (contrary to Agreement) and the Reaſon they themſelves give for it is this, that, "ſome Perſons, by giving their Orders in a very looſe Manner, and others on the Spot, imagining that the partial Repeal would ſatisfy the Americans, had their Goods ſhipped."---This is their Excuſe, and perhaps the beſt that can be made: Pray, if it is a ſufficient one, why had not the Pennſylvanians their Goods?----Why had not the Yorkers theirs?----We do not find that they had their Merchandize ſhipped (contrary to Agreement) for any ſuch trifling Reaſon.----Their Friends, no Doubt, would have had as much Pleaſure in a Continuance of Trade with them as with the People of any Province on the Continent, but their Orders were poſitive, the Merchants at home underſtood them clearly, there was no Opening left; a total Prohibition of Exportation, except a very few Articles, was required, unleſs the Duty Act was really repealed:----This was the effectual Method of proceeding, and this Mode, in my Opinion, might, with as much Propriety, be expected from the People of Boſton as from others.---They make great Profeſſions of Patriotiſm, and I ſhould think might ſet an Example for conſiſtent Conduct, rather than give Cauſe to ſuſpect the contrary, eſpecially in a Struggle of ſo great Importance, whereon themſelves aſſert, the Preſervation of American Liberty does much depend.

I would juſt further remark on the Letter of the Boſton Committee, that they mention "two Veſſels are put up, in order to carry the Goods back, viz. Captains Scott and Freeman, the one expected to ſail ſoon, fully loaded, the other in a little Time:" This implies (if I underſtand the Matter) there were ſo much Goods as that two Veſſels were neceſſary for the Purpoſe; but by another Paragraph from Boſton, we are informed, that the Bulk of the Goods are put on board the Lydia, Captain Scott, and do not fill the Hold by a fourth Part:----Theſe Things do not ſeem to me to coincide:----However, I leave the Subject to better Judges:----Certain it is that "ſome" Goods are gone back by Captain Scott, but as to the other Veſſel, our Papers are ſilent.

As Things are now circumſtanced, I much approve of the Reſolution of the Merchants of Philadelphia, mentioned in the laſt Gazette, viz. that "there ſhould not, at this Time, be any Alteration made in the Agreement generouſly entered into the 10th of March, 1769;" but it would have given me a very particular Pleaſure, if it had been further reſolved, that no Stranger ſhould, in future, be countenanced in taking the Lead, in regard to our public Affairs;---that it ſhall be deemed extremely indecent and forward, if ſuch an One ſhould offer at our public Meetings at the Coffee-Houſe, to dictate in the following Stile----Mr. Chairman, I do not underſtand that, let it be read over again:---Is it intended as one Queſtion, or as two Queſtions? I would have it to be but one Queſtion;---let the Meeting be adjourned, as ſoon as this Point is determined, &c. I do not now ſay that this has been the Caſe, but I ſhould think a Regulation of this Sort might be very proper to prevent future Impoſition; for I am of Opinion, that there are a great Number of ſenſible diſcreet Men in this City, who ought not to be thus dictated to, and really, from the whole Tenor of their Conduct, do merit a very different Kind of Treatment.

I refer theſe Conſiderations to the Public, and if it ſhould be thought I have been too officious in publiſhing my Sentiments, I ſtand ready to ſubmit to any juſt Cenſure, being fully ſenſible, that even a Native of this City has no Right to impoſe his Opinions, in direct Oppoſition to a great Number of the reſpectable Inhabitants of this Province, which is juſtly acknowledged to be one of the firſt for Reputation, good Senſe, and Virtue, on the American Continent."

For ſound and merchantable Cocoons, of the beſt Quality, from the Italian or foreign Silk-Worm, Four Shillings per Pound; and for ſound Cocoons, of the Native, or American Worm, Twenty-five Shillings per Thouſand; and proportionably for Cocoons of an inferior Quality. And as a further Encouragement to the Inhabitants of this Province, the Managers will pay them a Bounty of Twenty-five per Cent. on the Value of the Cocoons that may be purchaſed of them, over and above the Price propoſed as aforeſaid.

The following PREMIUMS will alſo be given, viz.

I. To that Perſon in Pennſylvania, or in the Three Lower Counties on Delaware, or in the Jerſies, or Maryland, who ſhall, on or before the firſt Day of September next, raiſe within his or her Family, and ſell at the Filature, the greateſt Quantity of ſound Cocoons, not leſs than Thirty Thouſand, the Premium of FIFTEEN POUNDS.

II. To that Perſon, in either of the ſaid Provinces, or Counties, who ſhall raiſe and ſell as aforeſaid, the next greateſt Quantity, not leſs than Twenty Thouſand, the Premium of TEN POUNDS. Both theſe Premiums excluſive of the Price as aforeſaid.

It will be required of every Perſon that may claim either of the two aforeſaid Premiums, that he or ſhe produce to the Managers a ſatisfactory Certificate, from one or more of the neareſt Magiſtrates, that due Proof hath been made before him or them, that all the Cocoons, for which the Premium may be claimed, were actually raiſed within the Claimant's Family only; and on the 11th Day of September, the Premiums will be fairly and impartially adjudged and paid by the Managers, to the Perſon or Perſons who may be entitled to them as above.

Such Perſons as may not be diſpoſed to ſell their Cocoons, but to have them reeled for their own Uſe, may have that Service performed for them at the Filature, in the beſt Manner, and at the moſt reaſonable Rates poſſible; as the Managers are not ſparing either in Trouble or Expence, to fit up the Filature properly, and to procure the moſt ſkilful Perſons for reeling and ſorting the Silk; and therefore, ſuch Perſons as have Skill and Experience in this Way, are requeſted to apply ſpeedily to the Managers, who will give them all reaſonable Encouragement.

SUPPLEMENT to the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE. No. 2164.

The following Advices were designed for our last, but, for Want of Room, obliged to be deferred.

The following is an authentic Copy of the Northumberland Petition.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble PETITION of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

" Most Gracious SOVEREIGN,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, with all Humility and Deference, presume at this alarming Juncture to approach your royal Presence, and, with the warmest Hearts, to assure your Majesty of our strict Attachment to the true Principles of the glorious Revolution, and to the happy Establishment of the Crown in your illustrious Family, the firm Defenders of civil and religious Liberty.

" Truly sensible that we address a British King, zealous of the Rights of his faithful Subjects, and conscious of the just Prerogatives of the Crown, we humbly hope, that to preserve the one, your Majesty, at their united Request, will graciously exert the other.

" From our Regard to your Majesty's Repose and Happiness, we should have withheld our just Complaints of many arbitrary Attempts of wicked Counsellors, but our Duty to your Majesty, to Ourselves, and to Posterity, loudly calls upon us to remain no longer silent, when our last sacred Right, the Right of Election, the very Essence of our Constitution, is violently wrested from us.

" With the deepest Concern, we beg Leave to intimate to your Majesty, that the Confidence of the People is withdrawn from such Representatives as have, contrary to the Trust reposed in them by their Constituents, violated the first Principles of the Constitution.

" We join, therefore, in the earnest Prayers of our injured Fellow-Subjects, in requesting your Majesty to exert that Part of the Prerogative so wisely vested in the Crown by our provident Ancestors, by dissolving the present Parliament.

" Permit us, Royal Sire, from your known Goodness and paternal Affection, to hope for a gracious Compliance with the Request of Millions of your Majesty's Subjects, whose ardent Wishes are ever to hail your sacred Majesty, by the endearing Names of Guardian, Friend, and Father of your Country."

LONDON.

March 19. An Evening Paper has the following Anecdote: On Wednesday last two Courtiers coming down the great Stairs at St. James's, at the Time the Common-Council were returning, one of them insolently and sneeringly whispered the other " to take Care of his Pockets, as the blue Gown Gentry were so near ;" which being overheard by one of that Body, he immediately retorted, that " it would be only executing the Law of Retaliation, as it was well known that Gentleman had picked the Pockets of the Public for a Series of Years."

March 20. We are informed, that 5000 l. will be granted for repairing and improving the harbour of Barbados.

The following Anecdote is a Fact.---A Lady of high Rank, whose amiable Disposition renders her the Delight of her Family and Friends, was going to an Assembly, but calling on another Lady who was to accompany her, heard by a Gentleman present, of a poor meritorious Family in great Distress; her Grace complained of the Head-ach, begged to be excused from accompanying them to the Assembly, ordered her Chair home, undressed, sought after and relieved the distressed Family before she slept; saying to her Woman, " how cheap I purchase my Pleasures, it would have cost me much more at the Assembly."---How pleasing is it in this degenerate Age, to find such Goodness and Greatness meet.

We hear that a Detachment from the Regiments of Artillery at Woolwich, will be embarked for Jamaica, as soon as the necessary Transports shall be got ready.

March 23. We learn from Hertford, that the Small-Pox having broke out in that Place, and many of the Inhabitants having died of it, the celebrated Baron Dimsdale, pitying the Distress of his Neighbours, generously inoculated all the Poor in the Town, giving not only Medicines, but also Food to the most Necessitous. The Number thus inoculated by him, it is said, amounted to about Four Hundred, every one of whom recovered.

" According to our Advices from Spain, they continue to send Troops and Military Stores to America. This authenticates what has been reported concerning a Rupture between the two States, possessed of Territory in that Part of the World."

Whereas the Ship Sharp, Captain Spier, arrived on Tuesday last from Glasgow, consigned to Messieurs Walter and Thomas Buchanan, and Company, with a Quantity of Goods for this Place and Philadelphia, shipped contrary to the Agreement, and the express Orders of Messieurs Buchanans, and other Merchants of this City; we the Committee of Merchants, appointed to inspect into the Importations of Goods, do certify, that Messieurs Buchanans, and other Persons, to whom the Goods are consigned in the said Vessel, for this Place, so far from countenancing these Importations, did cheerfully and voluntarily agree to the said Goods being sent back again, and conducted themselves in every other Respect, to the entire Satisfaction of the Committee, who are fully convinced, that they have, in no Respect, been accessary to the Violation of the Non-importation Agreement: But that they are justly intitled to the Esteem and Favour of their Fellow Citizens.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.

Extract of a Letter from Rhode-Island, May 29, 1770.

" Since my last, Captain Whitman arrived here, with All his returned Cargoe on board, which Circumstance gives Pleasure. I am grieved to think that the Conduct of a few Dry Good Merchants, should bring such Scandal on the whole Colony. This Place begins to be in a great Tumult, the Merchants in the shipping Way, are discharging their Sailors, and hauling up their Vessels. The Importers of Dry Goods are much alarmed, and are forming a Meeting among themselves, in order to come into such Measures as will give entire Satisfaction to all the Colonies, and you may assure the People of your City, that every particular Circumstance will be strictly adhered to."

Extract of another Letter from the same Place, May 29.

" Yours per Whitman, I this Day received. His Return has thrown the whole Town in the utmost Consternation, the Merchant Importers are all determined to meet this Evening, and are determined to do every Thing to satisfy the Colonies. They did not give their Orders positively last Fall, but say they ordered their Friends not to ship except it was general. They will agree to store all the Tea of which none is sold. The Merchants will send an Express immediately by Land, every one seems in earnest, and I make no Doubt, they will be as strict and firm, as any Colony on the Continent."

To be SOLD, at public VENDUE,

On Saturday, the 30th Day of June, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the house of George Maxton, at the Yellow Springs,

A Valuable Plantation or Tract of Land, well known by the name of the YELLOW SPRINGS, situate in Pikeland township, Chester county, about 30 miles from Philadelphia, containing 150 acres, one half or more cleared, the other well timbered, and the whole watered by never failing streams; about 20 acres of watered meadow, and more may be made; having thereon erected a good stone dwelling house two stories high, 57 feet front, and 36 in depth, a fine piazza in the front, the whole breadth of the house, 8 or 9 feet wide, good cellars and chambers, kitchen, barn, stables and other out-houses. At a small distance from the above mentioned dwelling-house, is a good new log-house, weather-boarded and painted, well finished, with sash windows, about 35 feet front, and 18 deep, two stories high; and adjoining said building is another good log-house, about 18 feet square, which has been occupied as a store for some time, having a good spring and milk-house, oven, and other conveniences very handy, with a garden pailed in.

The medicinal virtues of the springs on the above plantation, for the cure of many disorders, inwardly and outwardly, are so well known to the publick, that it is thought unnecessary to mention them here. There are three bathing springs, which can be emptied or filled in a very little time by opening or shutting a sluice; two of them are enclosed by good new frame houses, 35 feet front, and 16 feet deep. Each bath has a drawing-room, and one a fire place in it; the buildings are neat, and make an elegant appearance, having glass windows front and back, and walks, with rows of shady trees, up to the dwelling-house.

The dwelling-house on said plantation is now used as a public house, and is so well accustomed, as to have from 100 to 500 people daily for the summer season, besides the unhealthy and infirm that come from all parts, and take lodgings for weeks together, for the benefit of the waters. On the premises is also erected a saw-mill, double geared, almost new; and a grist-mill may be very conveniently made, there being plenty of water, about 27 feet head and fall; now in the tenure of George Maxton; 25 acres of wheat on the above plantation will be sold separately.

At the same time shall be sold a small tract of 12 acres of land, adjoining the above mentioned plantation, mostly meadow, on which is erected a good log-house, 18 feet square, also a good new blacksmith's shop, and now tenanted.

Also another plantation or tract of land, situate in Pikeland township, Chester county, about 28 miles from Philadelphia, on the road leading to the Yellow Springs, containing about 177 acres, near one half of which is cleared, about 15 acres thereof being meadow, and much more may be easily made; the other part is well timbered, and the whole watered with never failing streams: Thereon is erected a good dwelling-house, with barns, stable, and other out houses. This place is much clearer of stones than most of the lands in the neighbourhood, and has a good bearing orchard. The title and conditions will be made known on the day of sale, by JOHN RHEA, CHARLES MEREDITH, GEORGE MEADE, WILLIAM CRAIG, JOHN WILCOCKS, and SAMUEL C. MORRIS, Assignees.

Philadelphia, April 1770

EIGHTY dozen of grass, cradling and briar scythes, and ninety dozen of sickles, made ready for the ensuing season, a quantity of straw knives, tanners knives, and drawing knives, several pair of smith's bellows, iron work for grist-mills, the spindles and rines made after the old or new method; clothiers, timber, packing, tobacco, and other large screws; saw-mill and fulling-mill irons; large scale-beams, for millers or larger draughts; all made by the subscriber, living at the sign of the Scythe and Sickle, in Market-street, who believes they will prove as good as any made elsewhere; which he will sell at reasonable rates, wholesale or retail, warranted or unwarranted.----He has for sale, a good copper still, of about 85 gallons, at Two Shillings per pound, and its tin worm, at One Shilling and Sixpence per pound, also black-lead crucibles, of John Stephens's make, known to be good.

Whereas some merchants of this city have, for these 5 or 6 years past, imported from Great-Britain, large quantities of sickles, stamped S. PACHALL, in imitation (as I apprehend) of my stamp, which is S. PASCHALL, and on the credit thereof, have sold great quantities, many of which have been brought to me by farmers to alter, who assured me they bought them for my make, and as the workmanship is by no means equal to those formerly made by me, I therefore acquaint the public with this deception, which may easily be detected, as the letter S, between the A and C, is left out in the stamp on the English sickle. I should have notified this difference to the public at their first appearance, but had then declined the trade, and as I am now desirous of establishing my son in the same business (who is an apprentice to me) think it a duty to the public, and my own character, to acquaint them therewith,

Dec. 3 M. STEPHEN PASCHALL.

WHEREAS I, the subscriber, agreed to purchase the Mount-Holly iron-works, by articles of agreement, dated 26th of the Second Month, 1768, in which agreement Peter and Samuel Bard were bound, to grant and convey to me, in fee simple, a good and sufficient title in law, but as they have not complied with their agreement, and I have laid out a considerable sum of money in the repairs, &c. besides paying part of the purchase money; and as the premises have since been advertised for sale, by Joseph Emly, late Sheriff, for the payment of some mortgages thereof, made by said Bard: Now this is to give notice to the public, that I have purchased a mortgage on the said iron-works, prior to those for the payment of which they have been advertised to be sold, under which, and the possession and right by virtue of the said agreement, I do claim, and intend to hold the premises, until their agreement be made good, or my claims satisfied, for the monies I have laid out; which, according to the opinion of some of the best counsels in Pennsylvania and the Jerseys, I can well support. DANIEL OFFLEY. †

THE subscriber takes this method of informing the public in general, and his customers in particular, that he still continues to carry on the Goldsmith and Jewellr's business as usual, at the corner of Front and Chestnut-streets.

As it always has been his constant endeavour to oblige his customers, so every one may depend upon it, that he will exert himself, as much as lies in his power, to perform his work with all the care, dispatch and nicety, that can be required. And all orders shall be executed, at the most reasonable rates, to the full satisfaction of his employers, who he hopes will continue their former favours, which will greatly oblige their humble servant, JOHN BAYLY.
